

MAGSA WEEKLY

MANDALA ART GALLERY • STUDIO • ACADEMY

MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

It is with great pride that I welcome you to the inaugural edition of MAGSA Weekly. This publication is our commitment to celebrating creativity, sharing knowledge, and building a stronger community across our Gallery, Studio, and Academy. We look forward to growing this space with your continued support and enthusiasm.

~ by Vasudha Sharma

FEATURED ARTIST - MAGSA

Prachi, an interior designer, student and artist at MAGSA, has participated in two exhibitions, showcasing her evolving creative journey. Her paintings on the 12 Jyotirlingas beautifully express her deep devotion and spiritual connection. Her work seamlessly blends design sensibilities with artistic expression

WORKSHOP WEEK

MAGSA announces its Art Workshop Week, offering a 6-day creative experience from 18th to 23rd May 2026 in Jaipur. The workshop includes activities like glass painting, origami, phone case art, and wall hangings, designed for hands-on learning. Hosted at Mandala Art Gallery, Studio & Academy, the initiative aims to promote artistic expression and skill-building.

COMMUNITY HEADLINES

JANVI CRACKS INTERSHIP WITH SHANTANU GARG DESIGNS THIS SUMMER

Janvi, a student at MAGSA, has secured a summer internship with Shantanu Garg Designs.

Shantanu Garg Designs is known for its contemporary and detail driven approach to interior and spatial design. This opportunity will give Janvi valuable exposure to professional design practices. It marks an exciting milestone in her growing creative journey.

BIYANI GIRLS COLLEGE HOLDS HANDS WITH MAGSA

Biyani Girls College collaborates with MAGSA to nurture creative talent. Students from Biyani Girls are interning at MAGSA, gaining hands-on experience in art & creativity. This partnership bridges academic learning with real-world artistic exposure.

ART NEWS FROM THE WORLD

A painting of Yashoda and Krishna has reportedly been sold for ₹167.2 crore. This makes it one of the most expensive Indian artworks ever sold. The artwork captures a tender, intimate moment between mother and child. Its emotional depth and cultural significance drove high collector interest. The sale highlights the rising global value of Indian traditional art.

BIRTHDAYS SPECIALS

Janvi

Hinaya

ART TIP

Draw from observation: Practice drawing what you see, not what you think you see. Start with simple objects like fruits, vases, or everyday items. Focus on shapes, proportions, and lines.