

MAGSA WEEKLY

GALLERY - STUDIO - ACADEMY

MESSAGE To our wonderful MAGSA community, we want to take a moment of gratitude and thank you for filling our space with creativity, warmth, and beautiful energy. Your love and support continue to inspire us, and we can't wait to create even more memorable artistic experiences together! Happy week.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

MAGSA's workshop week concluded on a wonderful note, bringing together art enthusiasts of all ages for a series of creative and interactive sessions. The week was filled with vibrant participation, hands-on learning, and an overwhelming response from the community, making it a memorable celebration of art and creativity.

The Week

Jayshree Perwal High School, Inter-house poster making competition

Aarvi Agrwal secured
Third position.

Hinaya Sethi secured
Second Position.

FEATURED ARTIST

Kanika Sharma has been a dedicated student and artist at MAGSA for the past three years growing her passion for art through creativity and learning. From simple sketches to expressive paintings, her journey reflects patience, confidence, and artistic growth. Having participated in two exhibitions, she continues to explore new styles and ideas, making each artwork a meaningful step in her creative evolution.

ART TIP

Experiment with color combinations on rough paper first to understand how shades blend before using them in your final artwork.

ART HISTORY

the Golconda Portrait (1677): A full-figure miniature painting created when Shivaji visited the Golconda Sultanate. It captures his famous side profile, long angarkha (traditional coat), and pearl headgear.

ART NEWS TO TAKE IN

From a small kirana shop family in rural Telangana to becoming one of India's most celebrated contemporary artists, Thota Vaikuntam has transformed everyday village life into timeless art. His bold colours, powerful depictions of rural women, and deep connection to Indian roots continue to inspire generations across the country.

